PART II—Section 4

Statutory Rules and Orders issued by the Ministry of Defence

MINISTRY OF DEFENCE

New Delhi, the 27th December 1952

S.R.O. 404.—The following bye-laws for the control and supervision of flour mills in the Cantonment of Jabalpur which the Cantonment Board, Jabalpur, hereby makes in exercise of the powers conferred by clause (17) of section 282 of the Cantonments Act, 1924 (II of 1924), are hereby published, the same having been previously published, and approved and confirmed by the Central Government, as required by sub-section (1) of section 284 of the said Act, namely:—

Bye-laws

1. In these bye-laws, "flour-mill" means any mill grinding flour, which is run with the aid of electricity or oil.
2. No new flour mill shall be established except within the areas notified under section 43-A of the Cantonments Act, 1924.
3. No person shall establish or maintain a flour mill except under a licence in the form annexed to these bye-laws issued by the Board.
4. The building or premises in which a flour mill is proposed to be installed shall be—
  - (i) at a reasonable distance from any place which gives out offensive smell such as latrine and cess-pits,
  - (ii) a solid structure able to withstand the vibration of the engine, with adequate space for fixing a dynamo or engine in a railed enclosure,
  - (iii) paved with concrete or cement, and
  - (iv) having 5 feet high cemented walls with a ceiled roof, properly ventilated and lighted.
5. The mill shall only grind foodgrains, which are properly cleaned.
6. No engine or dynamo of more than 12 h.p. shall be installed. Such machinery shall be fixed on a concrete foundation away from the walls of the building in such a manner that the vibrations of the machine do not affect the building and the residents thereof.
7. In case of machines run by oil, there shall be a chimney of adequate height fixed to eliminate smoke nuisance to neighbours.
8. The mill shall be worked only between the hours of 6 A.M. and 6 P.M. and shall be open for inspection during this period by the officers and servants of the Board, who are authorised to do so.
9. The premises, apparatus and the containers used, shall be kept scrupulously clean and the personnel working therein shall be inoculated and certified as free from any contagious disease, by the authorised Medical Authority.

10. Application for the licence referred to in bye-law 3 shall be made in writing to the Executive Officer in the form annexed to these bye-laws.

11. A breach of any of these bye-laws shall be punishable with a fine which may extend to 50 rupees and in the case of continued contravention, with an additional fine which may extend to 5 rupees for every day after the first day during which the failure or contravention has been persisted in.

12. If a holder of a licence commits a breach of these bye-laws, his licence shall be liable to cancellation by the Executive Officer and, shall not be renewed until such time as he has carried out the orders of the Executive Officer, to his satisfaction, for the purpose of enforcing this bye-law.
